

EVSE Dashboard

Manual switch for the user to decide if manual control of the current should be turned on

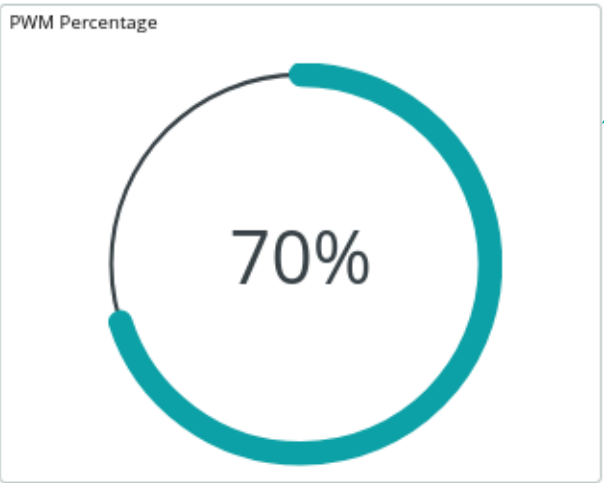

If manual control is switched on the user can decide with which

Display of the current in Ampere

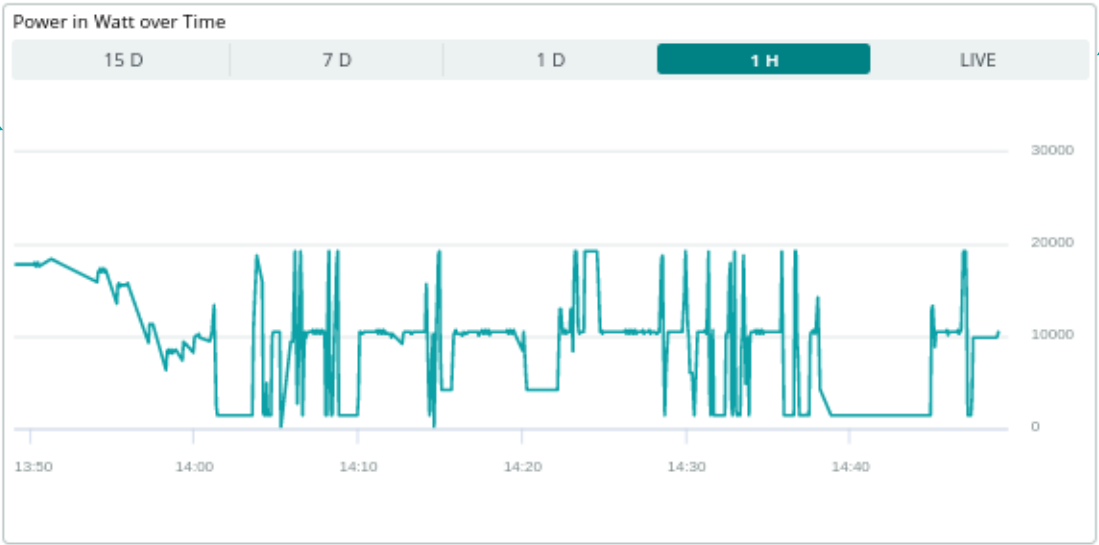

Display of the power in Watt

Display of the PWM percentage

Power in Watt over time as a graph. The user can decide if the data should be displayed for the last hour, day, week or if live data should be shown

Change time range of data